THE NEWSLETTER OF ST. PHILIP
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING DECEMBER 22

The Session has called a congregational meeting for December 22, immediately following the 11:00 worship service. The purpose of the meeting is the election of a Ruling Elder to complete an unexpired term in the Session class of 2020 and to elect a Trustee for a three year term in the class of 2022. The nominating committee will nominate Chuck Seidel for election to the Session and Tom Anderson for election as Trustee. Additional nominations are permitted at the meeting with prior consent of those being nominated.

Tom Anderson has been a member of St. Philip since 1993. Originally from northwest Indiana, he has been a local here in Houston since 1989. Tom was a restaurant franchise owner of multiple Subway sandwich stores throughout the Houston area for 18 years, and for the past ten years his career has focused on consulting on strategic business operations and financial planning and securities. Tom has been involved in charities such as the Houston Food Bank and Toys for Tots, and more recently, has participated with Kids Against Hunger at St. Philip. He is the proud parent of grown son, Jeffery, and grown daughter, Melanie. As a trustee, Tom seeks to be more involved with St. Philip by sharing his talents and years of experience.

Charles (Chuck) Seidel joined St. Philip in 2015 by letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church, Houston, where he had served as a deacon and ruling elder. In 2017 he was installed as an elder at St. Philip, serving on the Peacemaking and Social Justice Committee. On this committee he was involved in refugee assistance, the community garden, and the Solar Subcommittee of the Property Committee. He is honored to be asked to serve an additional year and is excited about staying involved in the 2020 Session.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

We are quickly moving through what is a particularly short Advent. Our final midweek service of the season is December 18 at 12 noon with lunch available in the Gathering Area at 12:30. The fourth Sunday of Advent is December 22. Our 9:00 service will again take the form of a contemplative eucharist and with opportunities for individual prayers for healing and wholeness. Keatan's sermon for the day is on the Magnificat, Mary's song in Luke 1:46-55.

I'm looking forward to my eighth Christmas at St. Philip. Both of our evening services on Christmas Eve conclude with candlelight and the singing of "Silent Night." Our 5:30 service is especially designed for children. They will have an opportunity to participate with Keatan, Omar, and myself in a dramatic and whimsical version of the Christmas story. That service will last for thirty minutes or so. At 8:00, our worship will be led by the St. Philip Choir. My sermon for that night is called "A Shepherd Story." We will also celebrate communion. Our celebration of Christmas continues on December 29 with a single service at 11:00. We return to our usual Sunday schedule on January 5 with an "early" celebration of Epiphany.

As the calendar year ends, we have a transition in our leadership positions. Terms on the Session are completing for Ruling Elders Janet Hess, William Rowe, Chuck Seidel, Sandra Truxillo, Kate Dickinson-Varner, Anne Wilson, and Nancy Beck Young. Al Waldrop is completing a term of service as a Trustee. Sara Jean Jackson and Jennifer Wilson are concluding three-year terms on the council for our Central Mission Endowment Fund. Many thanks to all of these people for their willingness to use their gifts in service to Jesus Christ and in support of our community at St. Philip.

There are other transitions underway. The new year often brings job transfers of various sorts, so we look forward to opportunities to welcome new folks to our community, even as we say good-bye to others who are moving away from us. Undoubtedly, there are also changes ahead that we can't yet anticipate. It's just how life is. In all of these things, from age to age, in our going out and our coming in, God is faithful, promising to be with us as our journeys continue.

Gratefully yours,

TREASURER

As we prepare to celebrate a new year of Christ's reign, I would like to remind you that the end of 2019 is also upon us! Thanks to all of you who have been so generous with Saint Philip during the year with your pledged funds and for gifts over and above your pledge. This has helped us minister to our congregation, assist local missions, educate our children, fellowship together and still have air conditioning in August.

I would like to remind you that it's very convenient to donate to Saint Philip. Many of us are habituated to put a check in the offering plate – great! We at Saint Philip are also able to accept a secure donation on our web site: saintphilip.net. Gifts of publicly traded stock are also appreciated and may be made by having your broker contact Ms. Anne Martin at Wells Fargo Brokerage, 713-468-6552. If you prefer to make an electronic transfer (ACH, wire) to Saint Philip, please contact Lorrie Castle for instructions.

Donations that Saint Philip receives through December 31 will be reported on your annual giving statement for your income tax return preparation. Thank you again for sharing your blessings with Saint Philip during 2019.

Ada Fuller - Treasurer

In addition to communion, the service includes a liturgy of healing and wholeness with an option for anointing with oil and individual prayer. The music for this service contributes to a mood of reflecting and resting in God's presence.

Most of her academic work and research has focused on the Gospel of John and Second Temple Period Jewish literature. After the Tree-of-Life synagogue massacre last fall, however, she felt compelled to start writing more on the topic of the Bible and antisemitism. Title of the lectures is "Christian Biblical Interpretation and Christian Antisemitism: Exploring an Unfortunate Link." Dr. Forger will preach at the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. worship services and present lectures each evening at 7:00 p.m. Lectures are free and open to everyone.
