GOD'S GRACE IN THE GARDEN

While so much has changed over the last several weeks, one thing remains the same: a garden grows. While much of St. Philip's activity has moved online, our vegetable garden has flourished—and continues to feed hungry neighbors. A crew of volunteers planted tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, and lettuces in mid-March, just before social distancing began. Those plants are growing, and some peppers and lettuces have already been harvested. The tomatoes will likely start producing in about a month; a couple of other tomatoes that sprang up on their own over the winter already have tomatoes on them and may be ready to pick as early as next week. Collard greens planted from seed last fall have continued to produce lavishly, and about thirteen pounds of them have been donated to CCSC's food pantry since late March.

One story of God's grace from our garden: On Good Friday, I went over to check the garden, harvesting two large grocery bags of collards to deliver to CCSC's food pantry. Finding it unexpectedly closed, I pondered what to do with all those greens; the food pantry would not be open until Monday. Just then, two different families arrived at the door of CCSC, very disappointed that it was closed and they could not get any food. They were mostly Spanish speakers, which I am not, but with a little English and a little sign language, and doing my best to follow safety rules, each of the families accepted a bag of greens and we shared a smile. The image of St. Philip collard greens on Easter tables in our community is a reminder of our shared life together, even in the midst of distancing and disruption.

By the time the tomato harvest starts in May, may we all be able to visit the garden in person. By Cathy Patterson

COMMUNION OFFERING

Thank you for your generosity. The first Sunday of each month an additional offering is received at St. Philip when communion is celebrated to support one of our mission partners.

- In April we were able to give $2,115 to support One Great Hour of Sharing—PC(USA) which helps fund Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Presbyterian Hunger ministries, and the Self-Development of People.
- In May we appreciate gifts to help Newspring. Newspring strives to help lift people out of poverty through opportunities, programming and relationships. The Visual Arts Program will be the recipient of St. Philip's May communion offering. Serving students ages 8-18 primarily from Title One schools at locations around Spring Branch, Newspring offers art classes and summer programming to Spring Branch ISD students and gives them an opportunity to develop their artistic skills, increase their self-esteem and learn to see their artwork as a catalyst to a future career. Art can open a child's worldview, and we at Newspring feel we need art now more than ever. newspringcenter.org

Visit the Children's Page on the St. Philip website. This a place that intends to help keep families connected to the church during this time of distance and separation. Be on the lookout for brief worship videos from Omar in the children's chapel and resources for faith formation at home. There are links to Godly Play stories, prayers and sharing activities to do around the dinner table. You can access the Children's Page using the icon on the home page of the church site.

WHO'S ZOOMING WHOM?

Some of the groups at St. Philip have been meeting during this time via Zoom and other video conference services. The session has had meetings, book club, church committees and Church and Society. We even introduced a coffee hour this past Sunday. If you would like to participate in future meetings, please see below which group's leader you should contact.

Church & Society: May 10 - Commemoration of the 75th Anniversary of the End of World War II and Liberation of Nazi Concentration Camps - My Family's Story - Houston-Area Holocaust Survivors - Hy Penn will tell the story of his father Morris Penn, who was hidden by righteous Gentiles in Lithuania, and his mother, Linda Penn, and grandmother Riva Kremer, both from Poland, who survived eight concentration camps. Presented by Dr. Hyman Penn, a pediatrician by trade and a magician for fun. If you would like to partake in the Church and Society Zoom class, please email Mickey Meyers at mmcgm63@gmail.com.

Sunday Coffee Hour—Once everyone enters the meeting after the service we are sent to smaller breakout rooms so you have a smaller group to talk with. The groups will randomly be assigned each week. Email Lorrie Castle at lorrie@saintphilip.net.

Women's Monthly Book Club—This self-led, interactive group produces lively discussions and wonderful fellowship. Our next meeting is May 14 at 7 p.m. We will discuss Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens led by Sue Howard. Contact Sarah O'dell for zoom link –sarah.odell6@gmail.com.

ATTENTION STOCK DONORS!

St. Philip has changed to a new broker service at Frost Bank effective April 1. Just as with our previous broker, we ask you to:

- Call Yvette Webb at Frost Bank – 713-388-1231 for transaction information.
- Our new account number is #037-293183.

While we are getting used to this new system, please let Denise Ferrell, our bookkeeper, know you are making a donation. You may reach her by phone at the church, 713-622-4807, on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons or by email at denise@saintphilip.net.

If you have any questions, you may always contact me at 713-306-8267 or amariepoet@gmail.com.
