u - ni - ty, The ver - y bond of peace.
one bap - tism, One Fa - ther of us all.
hearts for - give As God in Christ for - gave.
forth in faith, And Christ shall give you life.

Text: Ephesians 3-5; F. Bland Tucker, 1895-1984, © 1980, Augsburg Fortress Tune: AZMON, CM; Carl G. Glaser, 1784-1829; harm. by Lowell Mason, 1792-1872

Prayer of Confession

Faithful God, all we have needed, your hand has provided.
Forgive us for failing to trust in you. We doubt your interest.
We neglect your invitation. We insist on going our own way.
Restore us and remind us yet again of your love for us,
so that we may learn to look for you and to find joy in your presence.

silent prayer

Holy One, in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Declaration of Forgiveness

Believe the Good News. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Words of Peace

In Christ, God is reconciling the whole world,
and God is entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ. God's appeal is being made through us.
Peace be with you. Peace be with all.

Prayer for Illumination

Vocal Solo

Eternal Light

Jane Marshall (1924-2019)

Eternal light, shine in my heart; eternal hope, lift up my eyes;
eternal power, be my support; eternal wisdom, make me wise.
Eternal life, raise me from death; eternal brightness, help me see;
eternal Spirit, give me breath; eternal Savior, come to me:
until by your most costly grace, invited by your holy word,
at last I come before your face to know you, my eternal God.

— words by Christopher Idle (b. 1938) from a prayer by Alcuin (735?-804)

Affirmation of Faith

from A Brief Statement of Faith

In life and in death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.
We trust in Jesus Christ,
Fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor
and release to the captives,
teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children,
healing the sick
and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.
Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition,
Jesus was crucified,
suffering the depths of human pain
and giving his life for the sins of the world.
God raised this Jesus from the dead,
vindicating his sinless life,
breaking the power of sin and evil,
delivering us from death to life eternal.
With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death
can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Closing Voluntary

Prelude on Down Ampney

Chester Alwes
(b. 1947)

SERVING TODAY

Liturgists

Keatan King and John Wurster

Musicians

Cecilia Duarte, vocal soloist; Matthew Dirst, organist; Randall Swanson, pianist.

MUSIC NOTES

Organ music — Today's opening voluntary comprises a pair of movements, marked "Slow" and "Allegro" respectively, that together epitomize the English keyboard voluntary of the 18th century. Its composer, John Stanley, served for decades as organist at the Temple Church in London, where his playing attracted legions of devotees, including George Frideric Handel. The closing voluntary sets the hymn tune Down Ampney, to which we sing the text "Come Down, O Love Divine." The tune name comes from the English village of its composer, Ralph Vaughan Williams, who was born in the the vicarage of the town church. This arrangement for organ solo comes from choral conductor and composer Chester Alwes, recently retired from the music faculty at the University of Illinois.

Vocal music — Today's solo is by Jane Marshall, who was very active in church and university music in Dallas, Texas. Marshall was long associated with the United Methodist Church. She was director of the Church Music Summer School at Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology from 1975 to 2010, and taught choral arranging, music theory, and conducting in the music division of SMU's Meadows School of the Arts. Marshall's large catalog of over 200 musical compositions has been praised as much for her unique, well-crafted compositional style as for her use of excellent texts from her own hand as well as the works of other authors. The text of Eternal Light is based on a prayer by eighth-century English scholar and poet Alcuin of York, reworked and modernized by Christopher Idle, Anglican priest and prolific author of some 350 excellent modern hymn texts.

—Matthew Dirst and Randall Swanson
