Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,
you have raised Jesus from death to life,
and crowned him Lord of all.
We confess that we have not bowed before him,
or acknowledged his rule in our lives.
We have gone along with the ways of the world,
and failed to give him glory.

Forgive us,
and raise us from sin,
that we may be your faithful people,
obeying the commands of our Lord Jesus Christ,
who rules the world
and is head of the church, his body.

silent prayer

Holy One, in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Declaration of Forgiveness

Believe the Good News. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Words of Peace

In Christ, God is reconciling the whole world,
and God is entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ. God's appeal is being made through us.
Peace be with you. Peace be with all.

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture Reading

Acts 1:6-14

Solo

Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies

Allan Robert Petker
(b. 1955)

Christ, whose glory fills the skies, Christ, the true, the only Light, Sun of Righteousness, arise, triumph o'er the shades of night.
Dayspring from on high, be near; Daystar, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn unaccompanied by thee;
Joyless is the day's return till thy mercy's beams I see,
'Til they inward light impart, cheer my eyes and warm my heart.

Visit, then, this soul of mine, pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, Radiance Divine, scatter all my unbelief.
More and more thyself display, shining to the perfect day. Amen.

— words by Charles Wesley (1707–1788)

Christ Triumphant, Ever Reigning

John Barnard
(b. 1948)

Christ triumphant, ever reigning, Savior, Master, King!
Lord of heaven, our lives sustaining, hear us as we sing:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, the eternal name.

Priestly king, enthroned forever high in heaven above!
Sin and death and hell shall never stifle hymns of love:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, the eternal name.

So, our hearts and voices raising through the ages long,
ceaselessly upon you gazing, this shall be our song:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, the eternal name.

— words by Michael Saward (1932–2015)

Affirmation of Faith

Christ Jesus,
who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him.
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess
that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever.
Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Organ music — This morning's opening voluntary comes from one of Olivier Messiaen's most magical works, a 1930s suite on the subject of the Ascension of Christ. "Serene Alleluias" lives up to its name: this is a gently ecstatic musical world, yet one that relies on its composer's idiosyncratic and highly detailed way of organizing pitches and rhythms. The closing voluntary is one of several Bach settings of the German chorale tune Allein Gott in der Höh sei Her (All Glory Be to God on High). With the lightly decorated melody riding above a sturdy four-part texture, Bach supplies imaginative links between phrases, as he seems to have done during congregational singing throughout his career.

Vocal music — This morning's first solo — Christ Whose Glory Fills the Skies — features Charles Wesley's well-known text set to new music in 1986 by Allan Robert Petker, who is conductor of the California-based Consort Chorale in the San Francisco Bay area, Santa Clarita Master Chorale, and Los Cancioneros Master Chorale in Torrence. • The words of today's second solo — Christ Triumphant, Ever Reigning — were written by Michael John Saward, who also wrote the perhaps more familiar Baptized in Water, Sealed by the Spirit, (No. 482 in the Glory to God hymnal). Saward was a member of the clergy of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and a church commissioner and member of the general synod of the Church of England. Along with a number of other publications, Saward wrote nearly 60 hymn texts and served as text editor of Hymns for Today's Church (1982). The music for Christ Triumphant was composed by British conductor and organist John Barnard, and the tune GUITING POWER is named after the small Gloucestershire village of the same name in the Cotswolds, England.
