

THE COMMUNITY OF ST PHILIP
AT WORSHIP
MARCH 21, 2021
FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Opening Voluntary

Variations on a Shape-Note Hymn
Op. 34

Samuel Barber
(1910-1981)

Introit

Give Judgment for Me, O God

Chant

Give judgment for me, O God,
and defend my cause against an ungodly people;
deliver me from the deceitful and the wicked.
For you are my God and my strong salvation.
Send out your light and your truth that they may lead me,
and bring me to your holy hill
and to your dwelling.

— Psalm 43:1-2a, 3

Opening Sentences

Hymn 264 (see page 5)

At the Name of Jesus

KING'S WESTON

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,
your giving is without end;
but we struggle to receive all that you offer.
We misuse your gifts,
ignoring your intents,
and refusing your abundance.
We hoard what you would have us share,
and we throw away what you would have us keep.

Forgive us and help us discern your priorities.
Govern our hearts with your spirit,
so that we can live into the fullness of the gospel,
and for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

(b. 1957)

Give us, Lord, a new heart; recreate your spirit with us.

I will cleanse you in living waters, I will wash away your sin.
I will put a new spirit in you and you shall live.I will implant my law deep within you,
I will write it on your hearts.
I will be your God, and you shall be my people.For all your faults I will grant forgiveness, nevermore will I remember your sins.

Gospel Reading

John 12:20-33

Holy wisdom, holy word. Thanks be to God.

Anthem*Jesus, So Lowly*Harold Friedell
(1905-1958)

Jesus, so lowly, child of the earth,
 Christen me wholly, bring me new birth.
 Jesus, so lowly, weary and sad,
 Teach me that only love maketh glad.
 Jesus, so broken, silent and pale,
 Be this the token — love will not fail.
 Jesus, victorious, mighty and free,
 Teach me how glorious death is to be.

— words by Edith Williams (1889-?)

Hymn 215 \(see page 6\)What Wondrous Love Is This

WONDROUS LOVE

Affirmation of Faith

from A Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life.
 The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.
 The same Spirit
 who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
 claims us in the waters of baptism,
 and feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation.
 In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage
 to pray without ceasing,
 to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
 to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
 to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
 and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.
 In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
 we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks
 and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth,
 praying, "Come, Lord Jesus!"
 With believers in every time and place,
 we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of the PeopleThe Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
 for Thine is the Kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

- John 12:20-33 – Jesus says: Now I will be glorified; I will die and be lifted up.

 MUSIC NOTES

Organ Music

The American composer Samuel Barber wrote just a few works for the organ. Among them is a set of variations on WONDROUS LOVE, one of the best-known of shape-note hymn melodies, offered as today's opening voluntary. Invented in England, the practice of shape-note singing refers to musical notation that uses various shapes for the notes of the solfege system. Choral and congregational music notated in this manner include dozens of 19th-century song-books and hymnals, including Southern Harmony, the best-known shape-note source still in use.

Today's closing voluntary is a setting by J. S. Bach of the German chorale melody Wir glauben all an einen Gott ("We All Believe in One True God"). One of two organ pieces based on this tune in Bach's Clavier-Übung III, it treats the melody freely, in the manner of a contrapuntal fantasy.

Choral Music

Today's first anthem is by British composer Bernadette Farrell, who specializes in writing liturgical music, mostly on biblical texts. Give Us, Lord, a New Heart was composed in 1980, and is particularly appropriate for Lenten themes of forgiveness and renewal, as well as setting words of Jeremiah from part of this morning's first scripture reading.

This morning's second anthem is a beautifully contemplative work by American composer and organist Harold Friedell, who taught at the Juilliard School and Union Seminary, while also serving as organist and choirmaster at St. Bartholomew's Church in New York City. Though more of his works deserve to be heard, next to his very well-known Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether, Friedell's Jesus, so lowly is one of but a small number of his anthems still consistently sung. The anthem's strophic text is now the only widely-known poem by Edith Williams, who was the sister of British poet, novelist, theologian, and scholar Charles Williams (1886-1945).

 from the lips of sin - ners un - to whom he came, through all ranks of crea - tures, to the cen - tral height,
 with his Fa - ther's glo - ry o'er the earth to reign;

'tis the Fa - ther's plea - sure we should call him Lord, faith - ful - ly he bore it spot - less to the last,
 to the throne of God - head, to the Fa - ther's breast,

who from the be - gin - ning was the might - y Word.
 brought it back vic - to - rious, when from death he passed;
 filled it with the glo - ry of that per - fect rest.
 and our hearts con - fess him King of glo - ry now.

This may well be a hymn based on a hymn, for scholars say that the passage behind it (Philippians 2:5–11), though not in the style of Greek poetry, shows traits of a communal creedal statement capable of being sung. It is set here to one of the composer's most sonorous tunes.

With its ballad-like repetitions before and after each stanza's central narrative lines, this meditative text needs performance in order to be effective. Its haunting melody proves the means of convincing us that the only adequate response to "wondrous love" is to "sing on."

This carefully crafted text from the beginning of the 18th century conveys much the same intensity and vividness as a miniature painting of Christ's crucifixion, and this lyrical and dignified tune reinforces the sense that time stands still while we share such meditation.
